Huabin Zhou

361 Physics Rd
Phillips Hall
East Lansing, MI, 48825

Email: zhouhuab@msu.edu
Phone: (517)-4888705
huabinzhou.org

Education

B.A. Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI May 2019
Major in Residential College of Arts and Humanities
Additional Major in Anthropology
Cumulative GPA 3.85/4.0

Major Areas of Interest

Ethnicity, Kinship Structure, Modernization, Human Migration, Folklore/Religion, Urban-Rural studies in Post-socialist China.

Field Experience

Spring 2018 Student. ANP 429 Ethnographic Field Methods: Ethnographic Research on Potential Kinship Existing Among International Chinese Students

Professional Employments

Fall 2016 Student. RCAH 292A Engagement Proseminar: Civic Engagement in Willow Elementary School, Lansing, as teaching assistant and counselor for African American teenagers with traumatic experiences

Fall 2017 Student. RCAH 292B Engagement and Reflection: Civic Engagement in Eastern High School, Lansing, as student counselor for the Latino Leadership program,

Volunteer Experiences

Summer 2016 Volunteer. International Volunteer HQ Program in Kandy District, Sri Lanka
* Teaching Assistant for Local Elementary School
* Temple Renovation Program

Presentation

Zhou, Huabin. 2016. "Assimilation Process of Japanese Immigrants in 1920s America," Poster Presented at Michigan State University Residential College of Arts and Humanities Department's Spring Showcase in East Lansing, MI.

Reference

Available upon request